Colombian presidential candidate Paloma Valencia, of the Democratic Center party, denounced that a FARC dissident group offered two billion pesos (about $560,000) to assassinate her. President Gustavo Petro's government denied the claim and asserted that intelligence agencies have not detected any real threat against the opposition candidate and staunch critic of the ruling party. BREAKING: The Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) has ordered the issuance of Letters of Authority (LOA) to audit Vice President Sara Z. Duterte, her spouse, and nine businesses related to the couple.

This document will allow revenue officers “to examine the taxpayer’s books of accounts and other accounting records.”

The BIR stated that this action follows its “careful determination that probable cause exists to warrant a formal audit investigation of the subject taxpayers.”

BIR Commissioner Charlito Mendoza explained that the LOA is the legal instrument used by the agency to initiate formal tax audits.

“It is not a conclusion of liability, but it is a necessary step in determining the correct taxes due. Accountability begins with the consistent application of the law. Where there is a basis to investigate, the BIR will do so. And if evidence of tax violations exists, it is our duty to pursue the appropriate civil, administrative or criminal remedies,” he said. | via Aubrey Inosante

After 50 years at the center of global oil policy, the United Arab Emirates is making a bold exit.

The country announced it will withdraw from OPEC and OPEC+ starting May 1, 2026, calling it a “strategic decision” tied to its evolving energy direction and long-term economic vision.

What does this mean for global oil markets?

The anthem sounded more alive in the wrong place than in many of the right ones.

But here is the tiny problem nobody wants to touch because it ruins the outrage. It was not a sing-or-fail Monday-morning hostage situation. They were free to forget. And still, the song still found them. In a place designed for losing the senses, they chose the country.

Very awkward for the professional scolds, the "Kids today know nothing" industry. Because the old fear was that young people would forget the anthem. Forget the words, the nation. Forget everything, which, by the way, we're excellent at. We forget scandals, thieves, we forget campaign promises. Alzheimer's should run for office. Landslide.

Strange. Nobody panics when the anthem is played before speeches nobody believes. Or faint when officials solemnly stand beside the flag after robbing everything under it.

"Ladies and gentlemen, we're about to take everything. Please rise." That's allowed. That's the official version of stealing. Stand straight, said the crooked man.

A man can stand still, hand on chest, eyes forward, and feel nothing. Another can sing badly, loudly, holding his beer, stupidly even, and mean every word.

Tell me, genius, which one is closer to love?

Maybe we confused silence with respect, think love of country only counts if it looks bored and slightly constipated.

The law says the anthem must not be entertainment. Fair. A country needs standards, even if it misplaces them every election.

But what happens when entertainment is the only room where the young still gather, when the only place the anthem can reach them is a place the law would never bless?

The anthem was not born polite. Thank God. It came from trouble. Revolt. The people who were done kneeling and were trying, loudly and dangerously, to become free.

Then we dressed it up. Slowed it down. Combed its hair. Gave it rules. Good. Maybe necessary. But you cannot raise a song from revolution and then act surprised when it refuses to behave.

The crime may be bad taste. The evidence may be love.

Maybe they didn't drag the anthem down to the party. Maybe for one strange moment, the party may have been pulled up to the anthem.

Maybe that is what scares the old guardians: The kids found it, turned the volume up, reminded everybody that a song with a revolution in its blood was never meant to be obedient.

PRESIDENTE NA PINANALO NG MGA NPA!
Siya si Rodrigo Duterte!

Bago maging Presidente kilala si Rodrigo Duterte sa pagkakaroon ng suporta ng CCP-NPA. Ginamit nya ang NPA para lumakas sa kampanya. Until he became the President, kanya-kanyang politiko na nasa hanay ng mga NPA ang inappoint ni Duterte para sa utang na loob.

Remember this, isa si Rodrigo Duterte ang nagpalakas ng NPA during Aquino administration. Kanya-kanyang paninira at papabagsak sa administrasyong Aquino.

I am submitting this petition to the ICC to demand respect for RULE34, Section 6 - 7. The recent rejection of Duterte's appeal weighed heavily on me, because Tatay Digong has always been admirable in the way he handled the drug problem in his country, a true "savior" of the Philippines. Yet the ICC continues to illegally detain him while stripping away his Gooning rights. To make matters even worse, there is also information that the ICC judges are now planning to ban him from Edging. This is simply too much, even for the most Miscreant leader in the world.

Ang daming mahihirap na marunong lumaban nang patas.

Maagang gumigising. Nagko-commute nang malayo. Nagtatrabaho nang lampas sa sahod. Nagtitiis sa kontrata, utang, mahal na bilihin, mababang benepisyo, at serbisyong gobyernong minsan parang rumor lang.

Kaya tama ang punto ng Politically Correct Bigot: hindi laging kulang sa sipag ang mahirap. Madalas, kulang sila sa sistemang hindi sila dinadaya bago pa magsimula ang laban.

Sabi nila, “lumaban nang patas.”

Pero ang tanong: patas ba ang sistema?

Patas ba kapag may ipinanganak na may lupa, koneksyon, mana, abogado, backup plan, at apelyidong may elevator sa lipunan, habang ang iba ipinanganak na may utang, baha, kulang na classroom, sirang ospital, gutom na sikmura, at magulang na pagod na pagod na?

Hindi ayuda ang tunay na kalaban dito.

Ang kalaban ay korapsyon, political dynasties, oligarchic capture, palpak na implementation, at mismong maling sistema na ginawa rin ng kalaban—ng mga mayayaman at makapangyarihan—para ang mahirap, kahit tumakbo, nasa starting line pa rin habang sila nasa finish line na.

Hindi charity ang hinihingi ng mahihirap.

Patas na pagkakataon lang.

IMEE-NATAWA

Ito ang maikling reaksyon ni Sen. Imee Marcos matapos kumpirmahing nakalabas na ng Czech Republic ang puganteng dating kongresista na si Zaldy Co.

Nagpunta sa Czech Republic ang ilang opisyal ng gobyerno upang makipag-ugnayan sa mga awtoridad doon para mapauwi sana si Co.

Sa latest update ng Palasyo, nasa France na ang dating kongresista para sa hinihiling niyang political asylum doon.

'ANG UPUAN NG BISE PRESIDENTE AY NANANATILING BAKANTE'

Hindi pa rin nagpakita si Vice Pres. Sara Duterte sa pagpapatuloy ng impeachment hearing ng House Committee on Justice ngayong Miyerkules, April 29.

Nauna nang sinabi ng kampo ng Bise na sasagutin nila ang mga paratang sa Senado at hindi sa Kamara.

"Kung doon siya sasagot, hindi ba't kinikilala na rin niyang mayroon nang sapat na ebidensya rito at patungo na talaga sa Senado ang kasong ito?" saad ni House Committee on Justice Chairman Rep. Gerville Luistro.

Ang Senado ang tatayong impeachment court sakaling umusad sa trial ang mga reklamo laban kay VP Sara.

Antonio Trillanes IV is not your typical politician. He doesn't move with the tide, he collides with it. In a political culture often defined by compromise, silence, and convenience, he has carved out something rare: a reputation built on confrontation, principle, and an almost reckless commitment to what he believes is right.

He risked everything, his life, his career, his freedom, standing up to Gloria Macapagal Arroyo through the Oakwood Mutiny and the Manila Peninsula siege. Both failed in the traditional sense. But politically, they shook the system. They exposed cracks. They amplified dissent. And in time, Arroyo's grip on power weakened under the weight of compounding scandals and public distrust. Trillanes didn't topple her alone, but he made sure the fight never went quiet.

Then came Angelo Reyes, a symbol of the military establishment. His tragic suicide in 2011, following corruption allegations and congressional hearings, became a haunting moment in Philippine politics. It underscored the immense pressure, the weight of accountability, and the human cost when power structures begin to unravel. For critics of the system, it reinforced the urgency of exposing truth no matter how uncomfortable.

Then came Angelo Reyes, a symbol of the military establishment. His tragic suicide in 2011, following corruption allegations and congressional hearings, became a haunting moment in Philippine politics. It underscored the immense pressure, the weight of accountability, and the human cost when power structures begin to unravel. For critics of the system, it reinforced the urgency of exposing truth no matter how uncomfortable.

Trillanes didn't stop there. He went after Rodrigo Duterte, a far more dominant and feared political force. For years, he gathered documents, filed complaints, and pushed narratives that many dismissed or ignored. But persistence has a way of aging into relevance. What once sounded like noise eventually aligned with international scrutiny, culminating in developments tied to the International Criminal Court. Whether one credits him fully or partially, he was among those who kept the pressure alive when it was politically dangerous to do so.

Then there is Ronald dela Rosa, known as Bato. The bravado. The challenge. "Make my day, Trillanes." A line meant to project strength. But politics has a way of humbling theatrics. The same arena that rewards noise also exposes absence. Public perception shifted, questions emerged, and the contrast between words and action became part of the narrative.

The same arena that rewards noise also exposes absence. Public perception shifted, questions emerged, and the contrast between words and action became part of the narrative.

Now, in the shadow of impeachment proceedings involving Sara Duterte, the cycle repeats. Allegations, financial records, public scrutiny, and debates over discrepancies, particularly in relation to declared assets, have once again placed accountability at the center of national attention. These are still unfolding, contested, and subject to due process. But the pattern is familiar, pressure builds because someone refuses to let go.

That someone has often been Trillanes.

He is not universally loved. He is not always right. But he is relentless. In a system where many choose survival, he chooses confrontation. In a culture where silence is safer, he chooses noise.

‘WE SHALL PROCEED’

Wala raw ikinatatakot ang House Committee on Justice sa pagpapatuloy ng impeachment complaint laban kay Vice Pres. Sara Duterte ngayong Miyerkules, April 29.

Nakatakdang pagdesisyunan ng komite kung may sapat na probable cause para umusad sa trial ang mga reklamo laban sa Bise.

“The only people who fear the disclosure of these transactions are those with dirty secrets,” saad ni House justice committee Chairman Rep. Gerville Luistro.

‘A LOST OPPORTUNITY’

Iginiit ni Sen. Ping Lacson na nasayang ang oportunidad na mahuli at mapauwi ang puganteng si Zaldy Co.

Kasunod ito ng anunsyo ng Department of Justice (DOJ) na hindi na hawak ng Czech authorities ang dating kongresista, na naunang naharang sa German border dahil sa kakulangan ng travel documents.

“Government must now exert extra effort and work double time to bring him back not only to redeem itself from this lapse but to show its sincerity and seriousness in bringing Co and his co-conspirators to justice,” saad ni Lacson.

WALA PA RIN SI VP

Sa ikalawang pagkakataon, tinawag si Vice President Sara Duterte sa isinasagawang pagdinig ng House Justice Committee kaugnay ng impeachment complaints laban sa kaniya. Wala pa rin ang bise bandang 12:22 PM.

"The purpose of that call is to extend to her the continuing opportunity to present her evidence—including counter evidence and clarificatory questions through the Justice [Committee] members," paliwanag ni committee chair Rep. Gerville Luistro.

SAGIP Partylist Representative Paolo Marcoleta misquotes a movie reference upon his manifestation during the House Justice Committee hearing today, April 29.

As the committee decides on opening the box containing tax records of Vice President Sara Duterte and Atty. Mans Carpio, Marcoleta insists that the committee should have an "acceptable reason" to open the green box submitted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The quote used by Marcoleta was actually seen in Piolo Pascual's movie, "Starting Over Again," not in John Lloyd Cruz's "One More Chance." | via #MOJO Aime Atienza

Mike Defensor also released a recording of an alleged phone call between Orly Guteza and his wife last year, in which he claims he was being pressured to say that Defensor and Senator Rodante Marcoleta paid him, while also voicing fears for his family's safety.

Guteza earlier testified before the Senate in September 2025 that he had delivered kickbacks to properties allegedly linked to Zaldy Co and fomer House Speaker Martin Romualdez.

In October 2025, a Manila RTC ruled that the affidavit bearing his claims had a signature that did not match the named lawyer's. Guteza has not been seen publicly since.

Defensor added that his latest information on Guteza's whereabouts is that he is alive and with his family, though his exact location remains unknown. | via Allison Co, ABS-CBN News

MARCOLETA, HINDI HAHARANG SA PAGBUKAS NG 'BIR BOX'

Hindi tututol si Rep. Paolo Marcoleta sa pagbubukas ng selyadong tax records ng mga Duterte mula sa BIR, ngunit may kalakip itong babala.

Sa kanyang manifestasyon, biniro ni Marcoleta ang komite na "huwag nang bitawan" ang kahon, pero hiningan niya ang mga ito ng matibay na legal na basehan. Gamit ang linyang "I deserve an acceptable reason," iginiit niya na dapat tiyaking hindi lalabag sa batas ang hakbang na ito para hindi makuwestiyon ang proseso ng impeachment.

Good decision na hindi buksan ang BIR box because opening it is no longer necessary if the House already has enough probable cause to elevate the impeachment case.

The House stage is not the full trial. Its job is to determine whether there is sufficient basis to impeach. The Senate is the body that tries and decides impeachment cases. Ibig sabihin, sa Senate trial dapat gawin ang full evidentiary testing: relevance, admissibility, objections, authentication, cross-examination, and weighing of proof.

Why legally smart?

1. It avoids giving Sara's camp a technicality.

Tax records are highly sensitive. Under tax laws, taxpayer information is generally confidential, and disclosure is allowed only under specific legal conditions. Kapag binuksan ng House ang BIR box kahit hindi na kailangan for probable cause, puwedeng gawing issue ng kampo ni Sara ang confidentiality, due process, relevance, and alleged improper disclosure.

Kahit mahina ang substance, bibigyan mo sila ng procedural grenade.

Bakit mo pa sila aabutan ng bala kung may probable cause na?

2. It strengthens the impeachment case, not weakens it.

If probable cause already exists, opening more sensitive documents at the House level may look excessive or unnecessary. The cleaner legal move is:

"We already have enough to proceed. Let the Senate trial handle the deeper evidentiary questions."

29 Apr, 2026 14:21:47

"We already have enough to proceed. Let the Senate trial handle the deeper evidentiary questions."

That makes the House look disciplined, not reckless. Hindi ito takot. Ito ay litigation hygiene.

3. It preserves the evidence.

The box remains sealed, documented, and available for the proper tribunal. Hindi siya tinapon. Hindi siya pinabayaan. Hindi siya dinelete na parang magic confidential fund receipt.

It is simply being forwarded unopened so the Senate, if trial proceeds, can determine whether to subpoena, inspect, admit, exclude, or give weight to it under impeachment trial rules.

4. It avoids contaminating the process.

Kapag binuksan ng House kahit hindi na kailangan, the issue may shift from:

"May probable cause ba laban kay Sara?"

to:

"Legal ba ang pagbukas ng tax records?"

That is exactly the diversion Duterte lawyers want. Instead of explaining suspicious money flows, SALN issues, bank records, tax records, and alleged discrepancies, they can hide behind procedure.

5. It deprives the defense of fake martyrdom.

Kung binuksan, sasabihin nila persecution.

Kung hindi binuksan, wala silang "privacy abuse" drama.

29 Apr, 2026 14:22:39

Kung hindi binuksan, wala silang "privacy abuse" drama.

Pero the case still moves forward.

6. It respects the difference between probable cause and trial proof.

Probable cause is not conviction. The House does not need to prove the entire case with complete trial-level evidence. It only needs enough factual and legal basis to justify impeachment.

The Senate trial is where the full evidentiary battle happens.

In short: good decision because the House does not need to open confidential tax records if there is already sufficient probable cause. Opening them now creates more legal risk than legal value.

Pinakasimple: huwag buksan ang kahon kung sapat na ang ebidensya para dalhin ang kaso sa tamang korte. Sa Senate trial na buksan kung kailangan.

Hindi ito atras.

Ito ang tamang chess move.

NBI HAS LEADS ON ASSASSIN ALLEGEDLY HIRED BY VP DUTERTE

NBI director Melvin Matibag confirmed Wednesday that the agency has leads on the assassin allegedly hired by Vice President Sara Duterte to assassinate President Ferdinand Marcos Jr.

"We're zeroing on several individuals already na maaaring 'yun po 'yung kinausap niya [Vice President Sara Duterte] doon sa threat na ginawa po niya," he said during the House justice committee hearing.

The leads from NBI's ongoing case buildup are linked to the assassin allegedly hired to kill Marcos, first lady Liza Araneta-Marcos, and former House spokesperson Martin Romualdez, based on Duterte's virtual presscon on November 23, 2024.

VP Sara skipped the clarificatory hearing where she could have faced questions, answered doubts, and defended herself on record.

Instead, she showed up at a ribbon-cutting.

Iyon ang totoong exhibit: accountability on display, pero siya wala sa upuan.

Ang nakakatawa, yung supporters niya puputok na ang litid at ugat sa ulo kaka-mental gymnastics, kaka-explain, kaka-"technicality," kaka-"political persecution," kaka-"respect due process," habang si Inday mismo pachill-chill lang sa mall, naka-barong, nagpapagupit ng ribbon na parang walang naghihintay na hearing.

Sila ang pawis na pawis kakadepensa.
Siya ang relaxed na relaxed kakaiwas.

Kung matapang talaga, pumunta sa hearing.
Hindi yung sa ribbon-cutting may attendance, pero sa accountability naka-leave without pay.

Maisug daw.
Pero pag tanong na ang haharapin, biglang "extra ordinary" ang schedule.

Voting 38-6-0, the House Committee on Justice voted Wednesday (April 29) to defer opening the sealed tax records of Vice President Sara Duterte and her husband.

Before the vote, several lawmakers raised the possibility of deferring the examination of the documents to the Senate, which would serve as the impeachment court if the case progresses.

The Bank Secrecy Law is one of the SHORTEST laws out there. 5 sections on the substantial part.

And it's also clear and straightforward: the absolute confidentiality does NOT apply to cases of impeachment.

There's NO room for interpretation or any form of legal semantics (or gymnastics).

Only a STRAINED mind will do that.

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
Congress of the Philippines
Metro Manila

REPUBLIC ACT No. 1405

AN ACT PROHIBITING DISCLOSURE OF OR INQUIRY INTO, DEPOSITS WITH ANY BANKING INSTITUTION AND PROVIDING PENALTY THEREFOR.

Section 1. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Government to give encouragement to the people to deposit their money in banking institutions and to discourage private hoarding so that the same may be properly utilized by banks in authorized loans to assist in the economic development of the country.

Section 2. [1] All deposits of whatever nature with banks or banking institutions in the Philippines including investments in bonds issued by the Government of the Philippines, its political subdivisions and its instrumentalities, are hereby considered as of an absolutely confidential nature and may not be examined, inquired or looked into by any person, government official, bureau or office, except upon written permission of the depositor, or in cases of impeachment, or upon order of a competent court in cases of bribery or dereliction of duty of public officials, or in cases where the money deposited or invested is the subject matter of the litigation.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any official or employee of a banking institution to disclose to any person other than those mentioned in Section two hereof any information concerning said deposits.

Section 4. All Acts or parts of Acts, Special Charters, Executive Orders, Rules and Regulations which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Section 5. Any violation of this law will subject offender upon conviction, to an imprisonment of not more than five years or a fine of not more than twenty thousand pesos or both, in the discretion of the court.

Section 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

LINYA NI JOHN LLOYD, PIOLO, O REP. MARCOLETA?

Ibang pelikula ang nagamit ni SAGIP Party-list Rep. Paolo Marcoleta nang ihayag niya ang kanyang manifestation sa gitna ng diskusyon kung dapat bang buksan ng House Justice panel ang kahon mula sa Bureau of Internal Revenue, na naglalaman ng tax records nina Vice Pres. Sara Duterte at Atty. Manases Carpio.

Sa kanyang manifestation, binanggit ni Marcoleta ang karakter ni John Lloyd Cruz na si "Popoy" mula sa pelikulang "One More Chance" pero linya ni Piolo Pascual na "I deserve an explanation, I deserve an unacceptable reason" mula sa pelikulang "Starting Over Again" ang inilahad niya.

'IPAPAPATAY KO 'YUNG TAO' VS. 'Ipapapatay ko 'yung tao'

Sa pagpapatuloy ng pagdinig ng House Committee on Justice sa impeachment complaint vs. Vice Pres. Sara Duterte, tinanong ni House Deputy Speaker Janette Garin ang National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) kung may pagkakaiba ba ang isang banta depende sa emosyon kung paano ito sinabi.

Kasunod 'yan ng pagtalakay sa umano'y pagbabanta ni Duterte sa buhay nina Pres. Bongbong Marcos, First Lady Liza Araneta-Marcos, at dating House speaker Martin Romualdez.

Halos isang linggo na ang nakalipas nang kumpirmahin ng International Criminal Court o ICC Pre-Trial Chamber 1 ang lahat ng charges para sa kasong crimes against humanity laban kay dating Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte. Ibig sabihin, lilitisin na ang dating pangulo sa mga kasong isinampa laban sa kaniya.

Nitong Abril 28, pinangalanan na rin ng ICC ang tatlong hurado na bubuo sa Trial Chamber III na hahawak sa pormal na paglilitis kay Duterte. Ito ay sina Judge Joanna Korner, Judge Keebong Paek, and Judge Nicolas Guillou.

Basahin ang kaugnay na ulat:
https://bit.ly/ICCJudgesInFormerPresidentDutertesTrial

Bago inilabas ang desisyon nitong Abril 23, 2026, isinagawa ang confirmation of charges hearing noong Pebrero.
Anu-ano nga ba ang mahahalagang nangyari sa naturang pagdinig? Panoorin sa video.

Mga ka-DDS, 🇮🇹 Italian President na kaibigan ni Tatay 👊 Rodrigo diGoon Duterte 💚, umaksyon na kontra ICC matapos ang umano'y unfair na pagbasura sa apela ni Tatay Digong.I am submitting this petition to the ICC to demand respect for RULE34, Section 6 - 7. The recent rejection of Duterte's appeal weighed heavily on me, because Tatay Digong has always been admirable in the way he handled the drug problem in his country, a true "savior" of the Philippines. Yet the ICC continues to illegally detain him while stripping away his Gooning rights. To make matters even worse, there is also information that the ICC judges are now planning to ban him from Edging. This is simply too much, even for the most Miscreant leader in the world.Joaquín Archivaldo Guzmán LoeraPresident of the Italian Republic #viralpost

'THIS IS OUTRIGHT COERCION'

Sinabi ni 1st District Davao City Rep. Paolo Duterte na mayroon na umanong tumatawag sa mga chief of staff ng ilang kongresista upang bumoto pabor sa impeachment ni Vice Pres. Sara Duterte.

Kung hindi umano boboto ang mga kongresista, aalisin ang pondo ng kanilang distrito sa ilalim ng General Appropriations Act (GAA).

Kasama umano rito ang pondo para sa patubig, paaralan, tulay, kalsada, at social services.

"Tao ang gusto parusahan para lang sa desperate attempt nila na mawala ang kalaban sa pulitika. Anong kinakatakot ninyo?" dagdag ni Rep. Duterte.

STATEMENT OF REP. PAOLO "PULONG" DUTERTE
Davao City, 1st District

Nagtatawag na daw ang mga staff ni Charise sa mga chief of staff ng mga congressman na bumoto para sa impeachment kung hindi ay tatanggalin ang buong GAA ng kanilang distrito. Ibig sabihin, lahat kasama yung mga pondo para sa patubig, paaralan, tulay, kalsada at iba pang kailangan lalo sa mga probinsyang hirap na hirap. Bukod dito, pati daw pondo para sana sa mga social services, walang ibibigay. Tao ang gusto parusahan para lang sa desperate attempt nila na mawala ang kalaban sa pulitika. Anong kinakatakot ninyo?

What we are seeing now under the bangag leadership is not politics as usual—this is outright coercion.

Kung tinuod man nga ginapanghadlok ang mga congressman nga tanggalan og pondo ang ilang distrito kung dili sila musunod sa impeachment line, klaro kaayo—dili na ni demokrasya. Kini usa ka political blackmail.

The national budget is not a weapon. Hindi ito panakot. Hindi ito ginagamit para pilitin ang mga halal na kinatawan na sumunod sa gusto ng iilan. Uulitin ko, tao ang paparusahan ninyo para sa mga ambitions ninyo.

Ang pondo sa distrito, para sa katawhan na. Dili na personal na kwarta sa kung kinsa ang naa sa liderato.

If leadership is confident in its case, then let the evidence speak—not threats, not pressure, and certainly not the hostage-taking of public funds.

Klaro na karon kung unsa gyud ni—dili ni laban para sa hustisya. Laban ni para sa kontrol.

Ug kung kinahanglan manghadlok ug mang-blackmail para lang mapasa ang impeachment, then that already tells us everything—we are not dealing with strength, but with fear.

Hindi kami uurong.
Hindi kami matatakot.
Dili mi magpa-ilad.

We will stand our ground—not for politics—but for the Filipino people who entrusted us with their voice.

At sa katawhan, bantayi ninyo kini. Kay kung ang pondo sa inyong distrito mahimong bargaining chip, kamo mismo ang gihimong hostage sa ilang politika gamit ang inyung kaugalingong kwarta...

Hindi masusukat ang hirap na dinadanas ng bawat Pilipino ngayun para lang makapag bayad ng buwis at may ma i-ambag sa bayan...ngunit klaro ngayon na itong buwis na ito ay siya ring ginagamit ng bangag administration na pang gigipit sa ating mga pilipino...

MAY PA-BIBLE VERSE PA

Muling humugot ng inspirasyon sa Bibliya si Manila Rep. Benny Abante sa gitna ng mainit na usapin sa Kamara tungkol sa pagbubukas ng selyadong tax records nina Vice President Sara Duterte at Atty. Mans Carpio.

Binanggit ng mambabatas ang Luke 12:2 na nagsasabing, "Walang natatago na hindi mahahayag," bilang pagkilala sa kahalagahan ng katotohanan at transparency sa bansa.

Gayunpaman, nagpaalala rin si Abante na sa kabila ng prinsipyong ito, dapat pa ring pairalin ang tamang pagpapasya at pagsunod sa itinakdang proseso ng batas bago ilantad ang mga naturang dokumento.

The death toll from a train collision near the Indonesian capital Jakarta has risen to 15 with another 88 injured, a senior minister said on Tuesday, as emergency teams completed work to rescue passengers trapped in the wreckage.

The collision between a commuter train and a long-distance train happened late on Monday in Bekasi, just outside Jakarta, with a carriage reserved for women bearing the brunt of the crash.

Agus Harimurti Yudhoyono, Indonesia's senior minister for infrastructure, told reporters the death toll had risen to 15.

Laguna 1st District Rep. Ann Matibag said Vice President Sara Duterte visited a pop-up exhibit Wednesday morning instead of attending the House justice committee's hearing on impeachment complaints against her.

"This morning at around 9 a.m., the vice president, Sara Duterte, is in the city of San Pedro... Instead of being here," Matibag said.

ENERGY, RESILIENCE, AND THE 41ST SESSION

Yesterday's 41st Regular Session was a full and purposeful day at the Sangguniang Panlalawigan.

We acted on 15 committee reports and 6 urgent measures requested by the Governor, reflecting the steady work needed to address current concerns while advancing important programs.

A meaningful milestone for me was signing and delivering the first-ever committee report of the Committee on Energy, leading to the passage of a resolution interposing no objection to the proposed Iloilo Power Corporation Solar Project in Brgy. Balabag, Dumangas. Timely gid ini, especially amid concerns over fuel supply and energy costs, and a reminder that resilience also means investing in sustainable energy futures.

Our Privilege Hour carried that same spirit forward, as Board Member Rolando Distura delivered Harvesting Resilience, a thoughtful call for rainwater harvesting in Iloilo and stronger long-term preparedness.

Our Privilege Hour carried that same spirit forward, as Board Member Rolando Distura delivered Harvesting Resilience, a thoughtful call for rainwater harvesting in Iloilo and stronger long-term preparedness.

From energy security to water resilience, the session reflected governance that responds to present needs while looking ahead.

NAGPALAKPAKAN SA PAGTATAPOS NG HEARING

Tila nagkaroon ng celebration ang ilang mambabatas sa pagtatapos ng isinagawang pagdinig ng House Committee on Justice sa impeachment complaints laban kay Vice Pres. Sara Duterte ngayong Miyerkules, April 29.

Sa pamamagitan ng unanimous vote, nagdesisyon ang komite na may probable cause o sapat na basehan ang dalawang impeachment complaints laban kay Duterte.

Exceptions to Confidentiality

Bank deposits and investments in government bonds may be examined, inquired, or looked into under the following limited exceptions:

1. Law on Secrecy of Bank Deposits

   Bank deposits and investments in government bonds may be examined, inquired, and looked into in the following instances:[42]

   a. Upon written permission or consent in writing by the depositor. For consent to be valid, it should be made knowingly, voluntarily, and with sufficient awareness of the relevant circumstances and likely consequences.[43]

   b. In cases of impeachment of the President, Vice President, members of the Supreme Court, members of the Constitutional Commissions,[44] and Ombudsman for culpable violation of the Constitution, treason, bribery, graft and corruption, other high crimes, or betrayal of public trust.[45]

   c. Upon order of a competent court in cases of bribery[46] or dereliction of duty of public officials.[47]

   Cases of unexplained wealth are similar to cases of bribery or dereliction of duty and no reason is seen why these two classes of cases cannot be excepted from the rule making bank deposits confidential.[48]

   As bribery and plunder are analogous, the exception under the Law on Secrecy of Bank Deposits applicable in cases of bribery must also apply to cases of plunder.[49]

   d. In cases where the money deposited or invested is the subject matter of the litigation. The money deposited should be the very thing in dispute.[50]

JUST IN: Ibinasura ng Korte Suprema ang petisyong naglalayong pilitin ang Senado na agad mag-convene bilang impeachment court laban kay Vice President Sara Duterte.

Sa inilabas na press briefer ng Korte Suprema ngayong araw, sa botong 14-0-1, pinagtibay ng en banc ang desisyon na hindi maaaring gamitin ang mandamus upang utusan ang Senado, dahil isa itong kapwa sangay ng gobyerno na may sariling kapangyarihan.

Ayon sa SC, walang kapangyarihan ang hudikatura na panghimasukan ang mga aksyon ng Senado sa loob ng saklaw nito, maliban na lamang kung may malinaw na grave abuse of discretion, na hindi nakita sa kasong ito. | via Ryan Reloban, Abante Radyo

“Kapag pinatay ako, patayin mo si BBM, si Liza Araneta at si Martin Romualdez. No joke, no joke… wag kang tumigil hanggang hindi mo mapatay sila.”

There is no softer way to read that. There is no legal gymnastics that can dilute its plain meaning. It is a threat. It is structured as a command. It names targets. It directs continuation until death. And it was not uttered in private confusion or emotional isolation. It was delivered in a live, virtual press conference, broadcast to the public, recorded, archived, and now placed squarely before investigators and lawmakers as evidence.

This is not just reckless speech. This is conduct that cuts across criminal law, constitutional duty, and the ethical core of public office.

Under Article 282 of the Revised Penal Code (Grave Threats), the law punishes any person who threatens another with the infliction of a wrong amounting to a crime. Murder is not hypothetical harm. It is the gravest of crimes. [illegible]uire the threat to be unconditional. It explicitly covers conditional

Under Article 282 of the Revised Penal Code (Grave Threats), the law punishes any person who threatens another with the infliction of a wrong amounting to a crime. Murder is not hypothetical harm. It is the gravest of crimes. The law does not require the threat to be unconditional. It explicitly covers conditional threats, where the harm is framed upon a contingency. The Supreme Court, in Paera v. People (G.R. No. 181626, May 30, 2011), made it clear that the crime is consummated the moment the threat comes to the knowledge of the person threatened. Here, the threat did not just reach the targets. It reached the entire nation.

🔥 The threat was publicly broadcast, not privately conveyed
📊 The victims were specifically named — the President, First Lady, and Speaker
📄 The instruction was explicit and continuing — “wag kang tumigil”
🖥️ The statement exists in recorded audiovisual evidence, not hearsay

That alone satisfies the skeleton of criminal liability. But this does not stop at the Revised Penal Code.

2026-04-29 16:46:53

That alone satisfies the skeleton of criminal liability. But this does not stop at the Revised Penal Code.

When speech targets the highest officials of the State and tends to undermine public order or incite hostility against lawful authority, it opens the door to Article 142 (Inciting to Sedition). The law punishes speeches that stir the public against government authority or disturb the peace. In Espuelas v. People (G.R. No. L-2990, December 17, 1951), the Supreme Court upheld that even words, when directed at destabilizing authority, can constitute a punishable offense. This is not about dissent. This is about invoking violence against the very structure of government.

And because this was done through a digital platform, the Cybercrime Prevention Act (RA 10175, Section 6) may elevate the penalty, as crimes committed through information and communication technologies are punished one degree higher. The digital nature of the act does not weaken the case. It strengthens it, because it preserves it.

But the deepest fracture lies in the Constitution itself.

2026-04-29 16:46:57

But the deepest fracture lies in the Constitution itself.

Under Article XI, Section 2 of the 1987 Constitution, a Vice President may be removed from office for culpable violation of the Constitution, betrayal of public trust, and other high crimes. This is where the legal and moral dimensions converge.

A culpable violation is not a simple mistake. It is a willful and intentional breach of the Constitution. The Constitution is built on the preservation of the State, the protection of life, and the rule of law. For a Vice President to publicly utter a statement that contemplates the killing of the President and other top officials is a direct affront to these principles. It is not negligence. It is conscious, deliberate speech that undermines the very order she is sworn to uphold.

Betrayal of public trust is even broader. It captures acts that may not strictly fit into penal statutes but erode the integrity of public office. The Supreme Court, in Estrada v. Desierto (G.R. Nos. 146710-15, March 2, 2001), emphasized that public office is a public trust. It is not a platform for personal impulses. It demands

2026-04-29 16:47:06

Betrayal of public trust is even broader. It captures acts that may not strictly fit into penal statutes but erode the integrity of public office. The Supreme Court, in Estrada v. Desierto (G.R. Nos. 146710-15, March 2, 2001), emphasized that public office is a public trust. It is not a platform for personal impulses. It demands restraint, discipline, and respect for the law. What was displayed here is the opposite.

🔥 A Vice President invoking assassination is a collapse of institutional restraint
📊 It signals disregard for the rule of law and constitutional order
🏛️ It erodes public confidence in the highest offices of government
⚖️ It constitutes grounds for impeachment under betrayal of public trust and high crimes

This is why lawmakers describe it as a “high crime.” Not because it fits neatly into a single statutory box, but because it strikes at the heart of governance itself.

And strip away the political noise.

This is the first time in Philippine history that a sitting Vice President has publicly uttered a statement of this nature, in a recorded, verifiable, and widely disseminated forum. That fact alone should alarm anyone who still believes in the basic standards of public office.

No amount of backtracking can erase the recording. No reframing can undo the structure of the words. “No joke” was said twice. The instruction was repeated. The targets were identified. The act was defined. The continuation was ordered.

That is not ambiguity. That is intent expressed in plain language.

The law does not require theatrics. It requires elements. And those elements are staring directly at us, preserved in video, anchored in fact, and now under scrutiny.

At its core, this is not just about whether a crime was committed. It is about whether the highest officials of the land can speak the language of violence without consequence.

If that line is erased, then the Constitution itself becomes optional.

And that is precisely why this moment matters.

IMPEACH SARA DUTERTE - this time FORTWITH!!

HOUSE PANEL FINDS PROBABLE CAUSE IN VP SARA IMPEACHMENT COMPLAINTS

Sa pamamagitan ng unanimous vote, nagdesisyon ang House Committee on Justice na may probable cause o sapat na basehan sa dalawang impeachment complaints laban kay Vice Pres. Sara Duterte.

Inendorso nina Mamamayang Liberal Rep. Leila de Lima at 6th District Manila Rep. Benny Abante ang dalawang reklamo.

Sa mga pagdinig ng komite, tinalakay ang iba't ibang alegasyon laban sa bise, gaya ng umano'y confidential fund misuse, bribery, unexplained wealth at money trail, at threats at acts of destabilization.

Nakatakda nang bumuo ang House justice panel ng report na posibleng iakyat sa House plenary. One-third ng plenaryo ang kinakailangang boto para mapa-impeach ang bise.

Ito ang malaking EBIDENSYA na si Ka Ramil ang dinalaw ni Sara sa BJMP at hindi si Teves.

Hindi makikipag-usap si Sara kay Teves para sabihin niya ng personal na patayin mo si Ramil.

Ang pagpapapatay kay Ka Ramil ay hindi sa personal pinag usapan.

Si SARA DUTERTE ang nagdala ng FORM na ito sa BJMP na binigay niya kay Warden Jose Marie Sabeniano.

Yan yung time na kumaway pa si Sara kay Ka Ramil, pero hindi siya pinansin ni Ka Ram.

Pinababa sa reception si Ka Ramil ng guard dahil may gusto daw kumausap sa kanya sa phone naka video call. Ang nasa video call ay si Joyce Dapat, tapos pinasa kay Sara yung phone. Pero nasa loob sila ng BJMP niyan hindi lang puede pumasok sa kulungan si Sara kasi machichismis.

Yung FORM na yan ay isang malaking ebidensiya na si Ka Ramil ang dinalaw ni Sara sa BJMP. Dahil yung pangatlong pangalan sa form na BERNARDOS ay isa sa kasama ni Ka Ramil na nakakulong sa kidnapping case na tinanim ni Roque.

MALINAW NA MALINAW ANG EBIDENSIYA, BAKIT HINDI NIYO KASTIGUHIN ANG DIRECTOR NG BJMP AT YANG WARDEN.

HINDI PARA MAGSINUNGALING PA SI KA RAMIL SA LOOB NG TATLONG TAON NA NAKAKULONG SIYA

MALINAW NA MALINAW ANG EBIDENSIYA, BAKIT HINDI NIYO KASTIGUHIN ANG DIRECTOR NG BJMP AT YANG WARDEN.

HINDI PARA MAGSINUNGALING PA SI KA RAMIL SA LOOB NG TATLONG TAON NA NAKAKULONG SIYA BAKIT SIYA DINALAW NI SARA.

AND TAKE NOTE, NUNG HINDI NAG-PARTICIPATE SI KA RAMIL SA EME-EME NA PROJECT NI SARA SA MGA ANAK NG PDL.

HINDI TINULOY NI SARA YUNG PROJECT. UMASA YUNG MGA PDL SA ANNEX 2.
GHAGO DI BA.

AND PLEASE, KAILAN NIYO IIMBESTIGAHAN ANG BJMP CAMP BAGONG DIWA MALALA ANG KORAPSYON DIYAN, SI DUTERTE ANG TUNAY NA MAY-ARI?

Naglabas ng matinding akusasyon at rebelasyon si dating Senador Antonio Trillanes kaugnay sa umano'y koneksyon ng dating Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte at ni Pastor Apollo Quiboloy, partikular sa umano'y mga mamahaling sasakyang panghimpapawid at sa pinagmumulan ng pondo ng simbahan.

Sa isang panayam, iginiit ni Trillanes na may mga natuklasan umano silang impormasyon hinggil sa pagbili ng mga private jet at helicopter. Ayon sa kanya, kapansin-pansin umano na mas madalas gamitin ng dating pangulo ang mga nasabing sasakyan kaysa sa itinuturing na tunay na may-ari.

"Ang nauncover namin yung mga private jet or helicopter na binibili ni Quiboloy sa kanya yun kay Duterte. Kasi pag titignan mo mas madalas pa siyang gumamit kaysa dun sa true owner kaysa kay Quiboloy," ani Trillanes.

Ipinahayag din niya ang kanyang hinala sa papel ni Quiboloy sa umano'y daloy ng pera, na aniya'y maaaring ginamit sa mas malawak na financial arrangement.

"Si Quiboloy prinap-up nila para nga maging natural money laundering machine niya. Kasi hindi mo ma-question yung religion," dagdag niya.

Bukod dito, kinuwestiyon din ni Trillanes ang kakayahan ng simbahan ni Quiboloy na makalikom ng ganoong kalalaking halaga ng pera.

"Pag titignan mo yung church ni Quiboloy, it doesn't have the capacity to raise that amount of money," giit niya.

'ANG PANGULO AY NANANATILING BUHAY... NAKAKAPAG-JUMPING JACKS PA'

Binanatan ni SAGIP Rep. Paolo Marcoleta ang mga ipinalabas na video ni Vice Pres. Sara Duterte na nagbabanta umano sa buhay ni Pres. Bongbong Marcos.

Kahit na nasabi raw kasi ni Duterte ang mga ito ay nananatili pa ring buhay ang Pangulo.

Sa gitna ito ng naging talakayan ng House Justice Committee sa impeachment complaint laban sa Pangalawang Pangulo ngayong Miyerkules, April 29.

HINDI RAW SILA GINALANG

Nanawagan si Manila Rep. Benny Abante na tapusin na ang deliberasyon at agad nang magbotohan kung may probable cause ang mga impeachment complaint laban kay Vice President Sara Duterte.

Binigyang-diin niya na naging mahaba ang pasensya ng komite, ngunit ang patuloy na pagliban ng Bise Presidente ay isa umanong insulto sa proseso.

Giit ni Abante, kailangan nang ipasa ang kaso sa plenaryo upang matugunan ang ibang krisis sa bansa at hindi na masayang ang oras at pondo ng taumbayan.

JUST IN: Atty. Paul Lawrence Lim, counsel of Vice President Sara Duterte, says the presentation of the NBI on her alleged commission of inciting to sedition and grave threats "publicly reveals the paucity of the charges against her."

"Evidence is curated, even spliced. Context is ignored. Opinion is substituted for facts. Guesswork is presented as investigation results," Lim said.

"These cannot be the foundation for probable cause, much less a prima facie case with reasonable certainty of conviction. Simply repeating a conclusion, no matter how vehemently, does not make it true," Lim added. | via Bella Cariaso

PRES. MARCOS JR., DISMAYADO SA ZALDY CO SITUATION

Nakipagpulong si Pres. Bongbong Marcos kina French Ambassador Marie Fontanel at Czech Republic Embassy Chargé d'Affaires Ms Eva Tenzin sa Palasyo, ayon sa Presidential Communications Office (PCO).

Inihayag ng Pangulo ang kaniyang pagkadismaya matapos pakawalan sa kustodiya ng Czech authorities ang dating kongresista na si Zaldy Co.

Kumpiyansa naman umano si Pres. Marcos Jr. sa bilateral relations ng bansa sa France at Czech Republic. Umaasa si PBBM sa police, legal, at judicial cooperation para tuluyang mapauwi na si Co.

A group identifying itself as composed of "former loyalists" of President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. and his father and namesake is pushing for a possible tandem between Vice President Sara Duterte and former Ilocos Sur governor Chavit Singson in the 2028 national elections.

The so-called Sara-Chavit 2028 Nationwide Movement said it immediately discussed backing Duterte after she announced plans to run for president in 2028.

“Mula nang marinig namin ang opisyal na deklarasyon ng ating VP Sara Duterte noong February 28 na siya ay tatakbo bilang Pangulo ng bansang Pilipinas, agad kaming nagkaisa at nag-ugnayan upang pag-usapan ang matibay at nagkakaisang suporta sa tambalang Duterte-Singson,” the group said in a statement during a press conference Wednesday.

The Lakers look to put away the Rockets tonig

LA is 40-1 all-time when leading 3-1 (lone loss vs. PHX in 2006) 😤

If Houston looks to stave off elimination, staying out of a close one late will help, as LA has had success in clutch time this season, and this series.

PULONG VS. TRILLANES

Tinabla ni dating senador Sonny Trillanes ang pahayag ni Davao City 1st District Rep. Paolo Duterte na may banta umanong tanggalan ng budget ang distrito ng mga kongresistang hindi boboto para sa impeachment laban kay Vice Pres. Sara Duterte.

Ayon kay Trillanes, congressman si Rep. Duterte pero hindi nito kayang dumalo sa impeachment hearing ng Bise.

“By the way, ‘di mo ba ide-deny ang mga milyones na nakuha mo kay Sammy Uy? ‘Di ba nasa konseho ka nun? Masilip nga ang SALN mo,” saad pa ni Trillanes.

Ayo bro why the letting him get away with his references lmao.

Context: Sabi nitong Duterte na ito kina Marcos, isipin nila ang mga nangyari sa Romanov Family, Mussolini and Wife.

Long story short, they were killed brutally (ofc Mussolini and wife deserved it) but the Romanovs man, there are kids there... murdered by the communists.

Anyway, I can say that this is a direct death threat lmao.

KAMPO NI VP SARA: SPLICED ANG EBIDENSYA

Iginiit ng kampo ni Vice Pres. Sara Duterte na “curated at spliced” ang ebidensyang ipinakita sa impeachment hearing ng House Committee on Justice nitong Miyerkules, April 29.

Inilatag ng National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) ang records ng imbestigasyon nito sa pagbabanta ni VP Sara sa buhay nina Pres. Bongbong Marcos, First Lady Liza Araneta Marcos, at dating House speaker Martin Romualdez.

Giit pa ng kampo ng Bise, walang koneksyon kay VP Sara ang iba pang tinalakay na umano’y mga pagbabanta laban sa Pangulo.

“Evidence is curated, even spliced. Context is ignored. Opinion is substituted for facts. Guesswork is presented as investigation results. These cannot be the foundation for probable cause, much less a prima facie case with reasonable certainty of conviction,” saad ni Atty. Paul Lawrence Lim, legal counsel ni VP Sara kaugnay sa NBI complaint.

Actually your sons and daughters becoming activists at “mamundok” should be the least of your worries kapag nag-aral sa UP. Take these two, Mike Defensor and Chiz Escudero.

Mike Defensor has a Bachelor of Arts in History degree from the University of the Philippines and a Master’s in Public Administration, also from UP.

Alumnus ng UP pero sangkot sa ZTE–NBN corruption scandal where witness Rodolfo Lozada alleged that Defensor paid him ₱50,000 to change his testimony about being “kidnapped” at NAIA during the scandal. Sounds familiar ba?

He was also accused of hiring women for sex in 2001 after four women were arrested on vagrancy charges. He later denied the allegations and accused police of using a fabricated witness. Sounds familiar again?

Mike Defensor was also strongly criticized by the Philippine medical community for promoting ivermectin as a treatment during the pandemic.

He re-entered the political spotlight in 2026 after being accused yet again of being behind “maleta witnesses” in the flood-control issue. He was also recently accused of running a human trafficking raket. Parang dejá vu lang.

Then there’s Chiz Escudero. Completed kindergarten through high school at the University of the Philippines Integrated School. Obtained his political science degree and law degree also from UP.

Just recently, Sandiganbayan issued a precautionary hold departure order against him and businessman Maynard Ngu amid an investigation into alleged kickbacks from flood control infrastructure projects.

Just recently, Sandiganbayan issued a precautionary hold departure order against him and businessman Maynard Ngu amid an investigation into alleged kickbacks from flood control infrastructure projects.

Chiz Escudero allegedly received a 20% cut of infrastructure allocations worth ₱1.4 billion, with about ₱280 million in kickbacks funneled through Ngu.

UP is not a breeding ground of insurgents. It is the training ground of the best and the brightest. Its motto is “Honor and Excellence”. It’s worth noting na una yung “honor” before “excellence”.

So what people should worry more about is yung mga Iskolar ng Bayan who adhere to excellence but lose their honor along the way. They actually do the most damage to the Philippines and the lives of Filipinos than students who explore ideologies, inequality, and social justice.

UP has never been a homogenous entity. It’s a bastion of free thinking and freedom itself. There’s immense concentration of talent but at the end of the day, susukatin ka pa rin sa kung anong kaya mong isukli at isakripisyo para sa taumbayan na nagpa-aral sa’yo bilang Iskolar ng Bayan. Honor before excellence.

Robotic dogs featuring the faces of tech billionaires such as Elon Musk and artists such as Pablo Picasso are currently shown at an art exhibition at Berlin's Neue Nationalgalerie, captivating visitors.

The installation by U.S. digital artist Mike Winkelmann, known as Beeple, is entitled "Regular Animals." The mechanical dogs roam the exhibition space, dodging one another and interacting with the audience. Among those depicted, alongside Musk and Picasso, are Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, Meta CEO Mark Zuckerberg, the artist Andy Warhol, and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un.

The artworks are intended to convey a deeper message. The robotic dogs capture images of their surroundings and then produce prints in the style of the person whose face they bear. | via Reuters

Marcos requested for further information as to what transpired and why Zaldy Co was released from custody by the Czech authorities.

Nonetheless, the President is confident of the strength of our bilateral relations with France and the Czech Republic that is grounded on shared values, including respect for the rule of law. Former Anakalusugan Rep. Mike Defensor urged authorities to place Orly Guteza and 18 alleged former Marines under protective custody to ensure their safety and testimony in a corruption case linked to flood control projects.

Defensor presented a 61-page complaint affidavit to be filed with the Ombudsman against Zaldy Co and former House Speaker Martin Romualdez, citing testimonies from Guteza and others. He also released an audio recording alleging Guteza was pressured to implicate Defensor and Rodante Marcoleta.

Guteza has been missing since testifying in the Senate about alleged kickbacks. Despite reports he may still be alive, his whereabouts remain unknown, prompting renewed calls for witness protection.

'INGAT'

Akbayan Rep. Perci Cendaña delivers a message during the send off program of the historic fourth Atin Ito civilian mission on Thursday.

"Gusto ko ibigay sa inyo 'yung madalas sinasabi ni Popoy, hindi sa pelikula kundi sa commercial. 'Ingat.' Nakalulungkot sa ganitong byahe kailangan ko ulit-ulitin 'yung 'ingat' pero dahil kasi hindi mapanganib dapat ang pagpunta sa Pag-asa Island," he said. (Video by Rona Amparo/The Philippine STAR)

Swifties have long considered Taylor Swift to be one of the greatest living American songwriters of our time, and now, she's landed a spot on The New York Times' list honoring that very accomplishment. That's largely because of the prolific prose she manages to weave into her radio hits, and partly because of the notorious Easter eggs and secret messages she leaves for fans to decode.

While the 14-time Grammy winner constantly encourages Swifties to put on their detective caps, she admitted that it gets "extreme" and "weird" at times.

Hollywood has a long history of reducing talented women to their appearance—but Sydney Sweeney has pushed back against that narrative.
After acclaimed performances in Euphoria and The White Lotus, Sweeney has spoken about the double standards in the industry, noting that male actors are often praised for on-screen nudity or intimate scenes, while women are judged differently. “When a guy has a sex scene or shows his body, he still wins awards and gets praise,” she has said. “But the moment a girl does it, it’s completely different.”
Rather than being defined by surface-level commentary, she continues to focus on her range as an actress and her work as a producer, taking on more challenging roles and developing her own projects.
The conversation has sparked wider discussion about how women in film are perceived, and the ongoing debate around representation, talent, and double standards in the entertainment industry.

Nominator's comments: A train crash in Indonesia has caused nearly 100 casualties. Article is of decent quality. — Knightof theswords 02:45, 28 April 2026 (UTC) [reply]

- ~~Oppose~~ - no mention in the article or the nomination that the accident is in Greater Jakarta. If a plane was to crash in Romulus, Michigan, would we fail to mention it's proximity to Detroit? A bit quick - lets see some improvements and more details as the day passes. — Preceding unsigned comment added by Nfitz (talk • contribs) 03:14, 28 April 2026

'SI VP INDAY, SIGURADONG MAKAPAGDUDULOT NG PAGBABAGO'

Muling nagpahayag ng suporta si Sen. Robin Padilla kay Vice Pres. Sara Duterte sa gitna ng paglutang ng ilang pangalang posibleng tumakbo bilang pangulo sa 2028.

Bukod kay VP Sara, wala pang ibang nag-anunsyong kakandidato sa susunod na eleksyon.

"Mga kababayan, walang darating na messiah sa sistema ng gobyerno natin at masasagip ang Pilipinas sa paglubog," saad ni Padilla.

"Si VP inday, katulad ng nagawa niya sa Davao City, siguradong makapagdudulot ng pagbabago sa pamamalakad katulad ni Tatay Digong," dagdag pa niya.

Residents use water buckets to extinguish some of the flames that were left still burning after a fire that gutted homes in Mayhaligue street in Manila on Thursday, April 30.

The blaze began around 2:41 a.m. in the residential area near the Masangkay area. It reached the second alarm within minutes, hit the third alarm by 3:27 a.m., and eventually peaked at fourth alarm by 4 a.m. as the fire spread through houses built of light materials. | via Jonathan Cellona, ABS-CBN News

Sa isang bahagi ng pagdinig ng House Committee on Justice, inungkat ni FPJ Party-list Rep. Brian Poe mula sa iba't ibang midya sa mundo ang mga balita ukol sa umano'y pagbabanta ni Vice President Sara Duterte sa buhay ni Pangulong Bongbong Marcos.

Aniya, kinuwestiyon ng pagkalat ng balitang ito sa buong mundo ang "stability at national security" ng bansa.

Back in 2018, a fan managed to snap a quick selfie with Robert Pattinson — but with a hilarious twist. Just before showing him the photo, the fan secretly applied a Snapchat filter that added oversized cartoon eyes and floppy dog ears. Pattinson, famously averse to social media and internet trends, had clearly never encountered one before. The moment he saw the screen, his easy smile instantly morphed into pure confusion. His expression said it all: "What just happened to my face?"

That split-second reaction perfectly captured the awkward clash between a major Hollywood star and viral internet culture. The sequence of photos spread rapidly online and became one of the most iconic celebrity memes of its time. Fans adored how utterly genuine his bewilderment was — no acting, just raw, unfiltered disbelief at his own digitally distorted face.

Moments like this are exactly why Pattinson's off-screen personality remains so endearing. Despite being a global movie star, he looked exactly like any regular person seeing a bizarre filter for the first time. It's one of those rare, completely authentic celebrity moments — awkward, hilarious, and unforgettable — that keeps resurfacing whenever people share the funniest genuine reactions online.

TURNING A NEW PAGE: 25 YEARS OF DAILY GUARDIAN

I had the pleasure of attending the 25th anniversary of Daily Guardian, a gathering that marked twenty-five years of the publication’s work in regional journalism and its continued role in telling stories that matter to the public held last April 29, 2026 at the Iloilo Convention Center.

The gathering brought together voices from journalism, governance, and academe in recognition of Daily Guardian’s 25-year journey in regional media, underscoring its continuing purpose as a newspaper to document local realities, provide context to public issues, and sustain informed discourse within the community.

Also, congratulations to all recipients for The Green Guardian Awards, where partner LGUs and institutions were recognized for their commitment to sustainability, environmental governance, and climate-responsive initiatives. Thank you to Daily Guardian headed by founder Mr. Lemuel Fernandez for recognizing and highlighting these efforts, giving space and inspiration to initiatives that reflect meaningful and measurable public impact.

I celebrated the turning of a new page together with Mayor Raisa Treñas-Chu, municipal mayors, Provincial Legal Officer Atty. Dennis Ventilacion, Ma’am Mitzi Peñaflorida of PGENRO, Mr. Francis Allan Angelo, Daily Guardian Editor-in-Chief, UP Visayas Chancellor Dr. Clement Camposano, Co-Founder, Philippine Center for Investigative Journalism Sheila S. Coronel, LGU officials and representatives, members of the academe, and media personnels.

41. These deficiencies are also likely to generate further litigation. Their resolution at this stage would avoid unnecessary disputes and contribute to the orderly and expeditious conduct of the proceedings.

D. Immediate Resolution

42. Immediate resolution of this matter by the Appeals Chamber is warranted. Absent appellate intervention, the proceedings risk advancing on an unclear and legally deficient basis.

Judge Joanna Korner of the International Criminal Court (ICC) has been elected as the presiding judge of the Trial Chamber III that will hear the crimes against humanity case against former President Rodrigo Duterte in relation to his war on illegal drugs.

In a three-page document, the trial chamber made known its decision to elect Korner as its presiding judge, less than a week after the ICC Presidency constituted the three-member chamber.

PROBABLE CAUSE FINDINGS SA IMPEACHMENT NI SARA DUTERTE

* Malawakang misuse ng confidential funds
Hindi ito simpleng “kulang resibo.” Ang lumalabas sa hearing ay may sapat na batayan para usisain kung paano ginamit ang confidential funds ng OVP at DepEd, lalo na kung tugma ba ang liquidation, dokumento, at actual na pinaglaanan ng pera.

* Kahina-hinalang gastos at disbursements
May mga questioned expenses at liquidation documents na kailangang ipaliwanag nang malinaw. Sa probable cause stage, hindi pa ito final conviction, pero sapat ang red flags para sabihing hindi puwedeng “move on” lang.

* Posibleng unexplained wealth
Ang issue ay hindi automatic na “lahat ng pera ay nakaw.” Ang punto: kapag may yaman, assets, o money movements na hindi agad maipaliwanag gamit ang lawful income, SALN, loans, negosyo, o legal sources, may sapat na dahilan para imbestigahan.

* Kahina-hinalang bank transactions at money movements
Hindi depensa ang “dumaan sa bangko.” Maraming illegal funds ang dumadaan talaga sa formal banking system. Ang tanong: saan galing, saan napunta, sino ang involved, tugma ba sa declared income, at may legitimate purpose ba?

* Alleged bribery at undue influence
May sapat na batayan para suriin kung ginamit ang posisyon, pondo, o impluwensya para paboran, patahimikin, o impluwensyahan ang proseso. Sa impeachment, malaking bagay ito dahil public trust ang nakataya.

* Grave threats laban sa Pangulo at iba pang opisyal
Ang sinasabing banta laban sa Pangulo at iba pang opisyal

30 Apr, 2026 21:08:45

* Grave threats laban sa Pangulo at iba pang opisyal
Ang sinasabing banta laban sa Pangulo at iba pang opisyal ay hindi ordinaryong “galit lang.” Kapag binitawan ng ikalawang pinakamataas na opisyal ng bansa, constitutional issue na ito: judgment, fitness for office, at betrayal of public trust.

* Pattern, hindi isolated issue
Ang bigat ng kaso ay nasa kabuuang pattern: confidential funds, questioned liquidation, money movements, possible unexplained wealth, alleged influence, at public threats. Hindi ito isang resibong mali lang; ito ay serye ng red flags na kailangang litisin.

* Sapat para umusad, hindi pa hatol
Probable cause does not mean guilty. Pero ibig sabihin nito: may sapat na facts, documents, testimonies, at circumstances para hindi na puwedeng itapon ang kaso. Dapat itong marinig sa impeachment trial.

Hindi ito chismis, hindi ito simpleng pulitika, at hindi ito resibo lang na nawawala; ito ay serye ng seryosong red flags sa pera, kapangyarihan, at public trust kaya dapat harapin sa impeachment trial.

LIBRENG CELLPHONES MULA SA DSWD, PINAMIMIGAY SA MGA 4PS MEMBERS

Bilang bahagi ng 4Ps Digital Grants, layunin nitong matulungan ang mga benepisyaryo ng Department of Social Welfare and Development o DSWD na mas mapadali ang kanilang komunikasyon at pag-access sa mahahalagang serbisyo ng gobyerno.

Sa ilalim ng programang ito, bibigyan ng libreng cellphone ang piling miyembro ng Pantawid Pamilyang Pilipino Program upang magamit sa pagtanggap ng updates, monitoring ng kanilang benepisyo, at pakikipag-ugnayan sa kanilang mga social worker.

Ayon sa DSWD, malaking tulong ang digital access upang mas maging episyente ang pamamahagi ng ayuda at masiguro na napupunta ito sa tamang benepisyaryo. Inaasahan din na sa pamamagitan ng programang ito ay mas mapapalakas ang digital inclusion sa mga pamilyang kabilang sa 4Ps.

Sa ngayon, unti-unti nang ipinatutupad ang distribusyon ng mga device sa iba't ibang bahagi ng bansa, kasabay ng patuloy na pagsasanay sa mga benepisyaryo kung paano ito gagamitin nang tama at responsable.

BAGO SA SAKSI: Inaresto ng mga awtoridad ang dating TV host na si Jay Sonza para sa kasong cyberlibel. Dahil 'yan sa pagpapakalat umano ni Sonza ng pekeng medical records kaugnay umano ng kalusugan ni Pangulong Bongbong Marcos.
